Paul J. Gamba is a Partner in Selman Breitman's San Francisco office and is a member of the firm's General Liability, Product Liability and Toxic Tort/Environmental practice groups. Paul represents a variety of clients, ranging from manufacturers and installers to suppliers and contractors, in personal injury and wrongful death actions, and cases arising out of alleged asbestos exposure.

Paul's considerable experience in Toxic Tort/Environmental provides him a unique ability to manage clients with large numbers of cases, effectively take and defend plaintiff, witness and client depositions nationwide, and manage large-scale document productions. He works closely with clients to make sure that their needs are met and that the best strategy is effectuated in serving his clients' interests.

Paul is originally from San Francisco, California, and presently resides there. When not helping clients with their legal needs he spends his time giving back to the community through volunteer activities.
