11766 Wilshire Boulevard, Sixth Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90025

Bruce Chusid is Of Counsel in Selman Breitman's Los Angeles office and is a member of the firm's Toxic Tort/Environmental Products Liability, and General Liability practice groups. Bruce represents corporate clients in federal and state court civil litigation, including cases arising out of claimed exposures to asbestos and chemicals. Bruce's clients include manufacturers, contractors, premises owners and distributors.

Bruce's decades-long experience in Toxic Tort/Environmental litigation provides him a unique ability to evaluate liability, causation and damages issues, efficiently investigate and defend claims, and try cases if necessary. He has participated in the defense steering committees responsible for drafting and implementing complex asbestos litigation general orders in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Orange County Superior Courts.

Bruce has provided volunteer legal services through the Bet Tzedek House of Justice representing tenants and the elderly, and received the Wiley W. Manuel Award for Pro Bono Legal Services.

Bruce is originally from New York, has lived in California for 35 years and presently resides in West Los Angeles. When not helping clients with their legal needs he spends his time hiking in the mountains with his German Shepherd and Labrador Retriever.
